STUDENTS are scurrying to get as much learning done as they can. We pray for all parishioners for their support and confidence as we grow to be leaders in our community and beyond. It's wonderful to see the students who represent the character traits their parents have shown them. We journey through this path together as a community. This week we celebrated our teachers and staff during Teacher Appreciation Week. Our Royal Parents set signs in the yard of ALL staff at ACS. We are so proud of the people who are working with students and parents through this time. Learning is still happening... passionate people leading our future.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION
My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

Happy Mother's Day

Some believe being wives and mothers has oppressed women. Women have been selected by God for a very important task. God bless all our mothers!!

A young man wanted to find the secrets of happiness. He decided to leave his home and seek out people who could show him this happiness and tell him the secrets. He traveled around the world and finally arrived to an old man whom people called a sage. He approached him and asked, "can you tell me about the secret of happiness?" The sage answered, "It is very simple, if you want to see and discover the secrets of happiness then you have to go around the whole city where I live within two hours. See all the wonderful buildings, houses, people and all this beauty. There is one demand, you have to take a teaspoon with two drops of olive oil and go through this city in a way so that you do not lose a drop of olive oil from a teaspoon." The young man set off on the journey. He returned after two hours. The master asked him, "Have you seen the beauty of the area, the houses, and people?" He said "no, I didn't see anything because I focused on the spoon and olive oil." The master said, "Try again. Go and see the city, people, beauty, how they live, what they do and don't forget about a teaspoon of oil." After two hours, the young man returned. The master asked if he saw the city, houses, people, and all the wonders in the city, life and beauty? He replied, "I saw, and I was very pleased. I did not miss how the people live and work like they do, but I lost oil from a teaspoon!" The old man said, "The secret of happiness is to see all the wonders in the world and not lose anything from a teaspoon. So try again and you'll be happy. Only the one who does not lose sight of small things but at the same time can see great things can find happiness, as well as the one who sees the beauty, greatness of this world but also does not lose sight of small things, he will find the secrets of happiness and be happy.

Apostles often talked about happiness and searched for it. They asked Jesus, what will we receive in return for us to follow you? Can my sons join the place on your right and left Jesus? How to live, what to do to be happy? Where is this happiness? How do I understand this happiness? Is this happiness forever or is it just temporary. The questions the apostles asked are similar questions that have been asked by people throughout the history of the world.

Today Jesus is very precise. As you can see, the apostles are not ready yet. Jesus says all that you need is here and now. Open your hearts and see that everything is in your hands. Just change the way you think. See what is around you, the small and what overwhelms you, and you will find the way, meet the truth and live joyfully. Love is in your heart.
