PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION
My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

PLEASE KEEP IN YOUR PRAYERS...

Rita Janz, Dale TerMaat, Janice Haupt, Patrick Hoffmann, Mary Lou Glaza, Irene Jakusz, Jim Wiskerchen

WHILE THIS MAY BE A VERY DIFFICULT TIME for some of us financially, I would ask that we all do what we can to continue to contribute to the parish either by mail, dropping off envelopes or offertory to the boxes in the back of church. Making online donations to St. Philip is now available at <https://diolc.org/st-philip-the-apostle-parish-rudolph/>. You may choose to make a single donation or set up reoccurring donations which can end at any time. Please check this out.

CHURCH SUPPORT - MAY 10

ADVERTISER
WEEK

One afternoon a mother was preparing dinner in the room. It was necessary to cover the table, spread out plates, cutlery, and glasses. Her 10-year-old son came into the same room. He was overjoyed, smiling and holding a piece of paper in his hand. He gave this card to his mother. Mom stood for a moment and began to read a message from her son. Her son wrote on a piece of paper;

- baby-sitting of my younger brother $10
- for cleaning my room $5
- for taking out the garbage $10
- for walking the dog $5
- for help in the kitchen $5

The total is $35 summed up the boy on a piece of paper. The mother looked at him, put a pen in her hand and wrote on the back of the page;

- for birth you $0
- daily care of you $0
- tears and sleepless nights $0
- for school sandwiches, lunches, and dinners $0
- for putting you to bed every evening $0
- for love and the love I will have for you for the rest of my life $0

His mother summed up the bill and it turned out to be $0. She looked at her son and she gave him back this paper. The boy quickly began to read. Tears started flowing from his eyes. When he finished reading he took a pen, turned the page over and crossed out $35 and wrote - it was paid. Then one hug and kiss to his beloved mother.

There are things that I can't buy or pay for. Do you know what these things are? Do you know where to look for them? Because maybe we often look for them far away, maybe we even think that it is unreachable. But they are right next to me, within my reach! "If you love me, you will keep my commandments", says Jesus. He goes on to say that this person will be loved by my Father; and the Holy Spirit will be given to you. We often think about God and His commandments. We calculate how much it costs us. What sacrifices must occur so that I can keep them! How many things do I have to give up! In this way we look at God's path, not realizing that God gives me His commandments to make me happy and keep me from failures and falls. How often we receive blessings, gifts, favors, and providence from God. Does God write a bill for us for what we have received? Am I able to pay for salvation, death and resurrection? How do I imagine paying God? God is different. He takes the card and speaks; you owe me

0. Let this Sunday be a reflection on the gifts we receive from God as well as from our loved ones; fathers, mothers, brothers and grandparents. Let us always be grateful for all the good, because by receiving this good, someone would want us to become better and richer here on earth, and finally, to open the door to eternal joy and happiness.

Fr. Janusz
