OUR PARISH WAS BLEST THIS WEEK with a donation from the estate of Mary Cournoyer in the amount of $64,500. She was part of our music ministry for many years, and we are grateful for her remembering St. Philip in her estate planning. This money will be sent to the Diocese to establish a savings account for church basement and rectory remodeling. God bless her!!

WE WOULD LIKE TO THANK FR. KOWALSKI for his direction and thoughts on the memorial to Arlyn (Chub) and Lorraine Dorshorst. Also, to Carol Haupt for coordinating the efforts to get the cemetery memorial completed. Carol introduced us to Ron Adamski and his company, Ascent Construction. From the moment we met Ron and explained what we wanted to do, he had a vision that culminated into the beautiful memorial. We will be forever grateful for the hard work and efforts by Ron and his Team. Most of all we want to thank St. Philip Congregation, the people of Rudolph, and everyone whose donations made this memorial possible. We hope the new entrance brings peace as you enter and will forever memorialize the love Arlyn and Lorraine had for each other, the Parish of St. Philip and Rudolph. St. Philip and the Village of Rudolph will always remain special to us.

Sincerely, Pam (Epple), Lori, Rick
Dave & Randy Dorshorst
