HEARTFELT THANKS to all of you who helped set up on Saturday, those who worked their shift on Sunday, and to the crew who came for cleanup on Monday.

Also, thank you to our great overseers who organized and took charge of their stands, those who donated prizes for Small Games, the Basket Raffle, Cash Raffle, and for the great variety of pies. The Tractor Pull for kids was a nice addition this year thanks to Lars and Ashley Larsen. Thank you to Barb Ziebell and Al & Sue Polum for organizing t-shirt sales and to Christy Steinle for the Christmas ornament idea. Special thanks to Carl and Geri Laska for sponsoring the cost of the Chad Przybylski Band. We were blest with perfect weather and a great crowd. Gross proceeds so far are $36,500 which includes some donations from 2020. God Bless!!

THANK YOU EVER SO MUCH for your generous contributions. The PCCW Stand realized a total of $1,484.55 in sales. Your generosity is greatly appreciated. With the profits we are able to purchase needed altar supplies, scholarships to ACS, sponsor parish socials and donations to worthy causes such as Pro-Life Across America, Casa Hogar, just to name a few. A special thanks to all those who came back and helped us pack and clean up.

PICNIC DONATIONS...A reminder that if you didn't work for the picnic, we ask for a $100 donation. Thank you.

COMMEMORATIVE PICNIC CHRISTMAS ORNAMENTS are available in the Gift Shop from 11-4 every day. Cost is $10.

THE FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY – August 15 – has been transferred to the weekend Masses, August 14-15.

The Catholic Order of Foresters will meet on Monday, August 9, 6:00 in the Welcome Center.
