HOLY WEEK, ABORTION & THE WISCONSIN SUPREME COURT
RACE...It is ironic that this election
and the debate about whether

Wisconsin law should continue to protect the lives of unborn children, as it currently does, will culminate in a State Supreme Court election that falls between the Feast of Annunciation (March 25) when Jesus became incarnate in the womb of Mary, and Good Friday (April 7) when he was put to death. Abortion has been the focal point of media coverage between the two candidates. Our challenge is to inform ourselves. As we cast our vote on April 4, let us cherish the fact that Jesus took on flesh as a tiny child so that one day he might rescue us from darkness and sin.

ST. MARY, AUBURNDALE FISH FRY - Friday, April 7

God does not love us because we are valuable. We are valuable because God loves us. He loves every child he sends into the world. Pray for an end to abortion and euthanasia.
